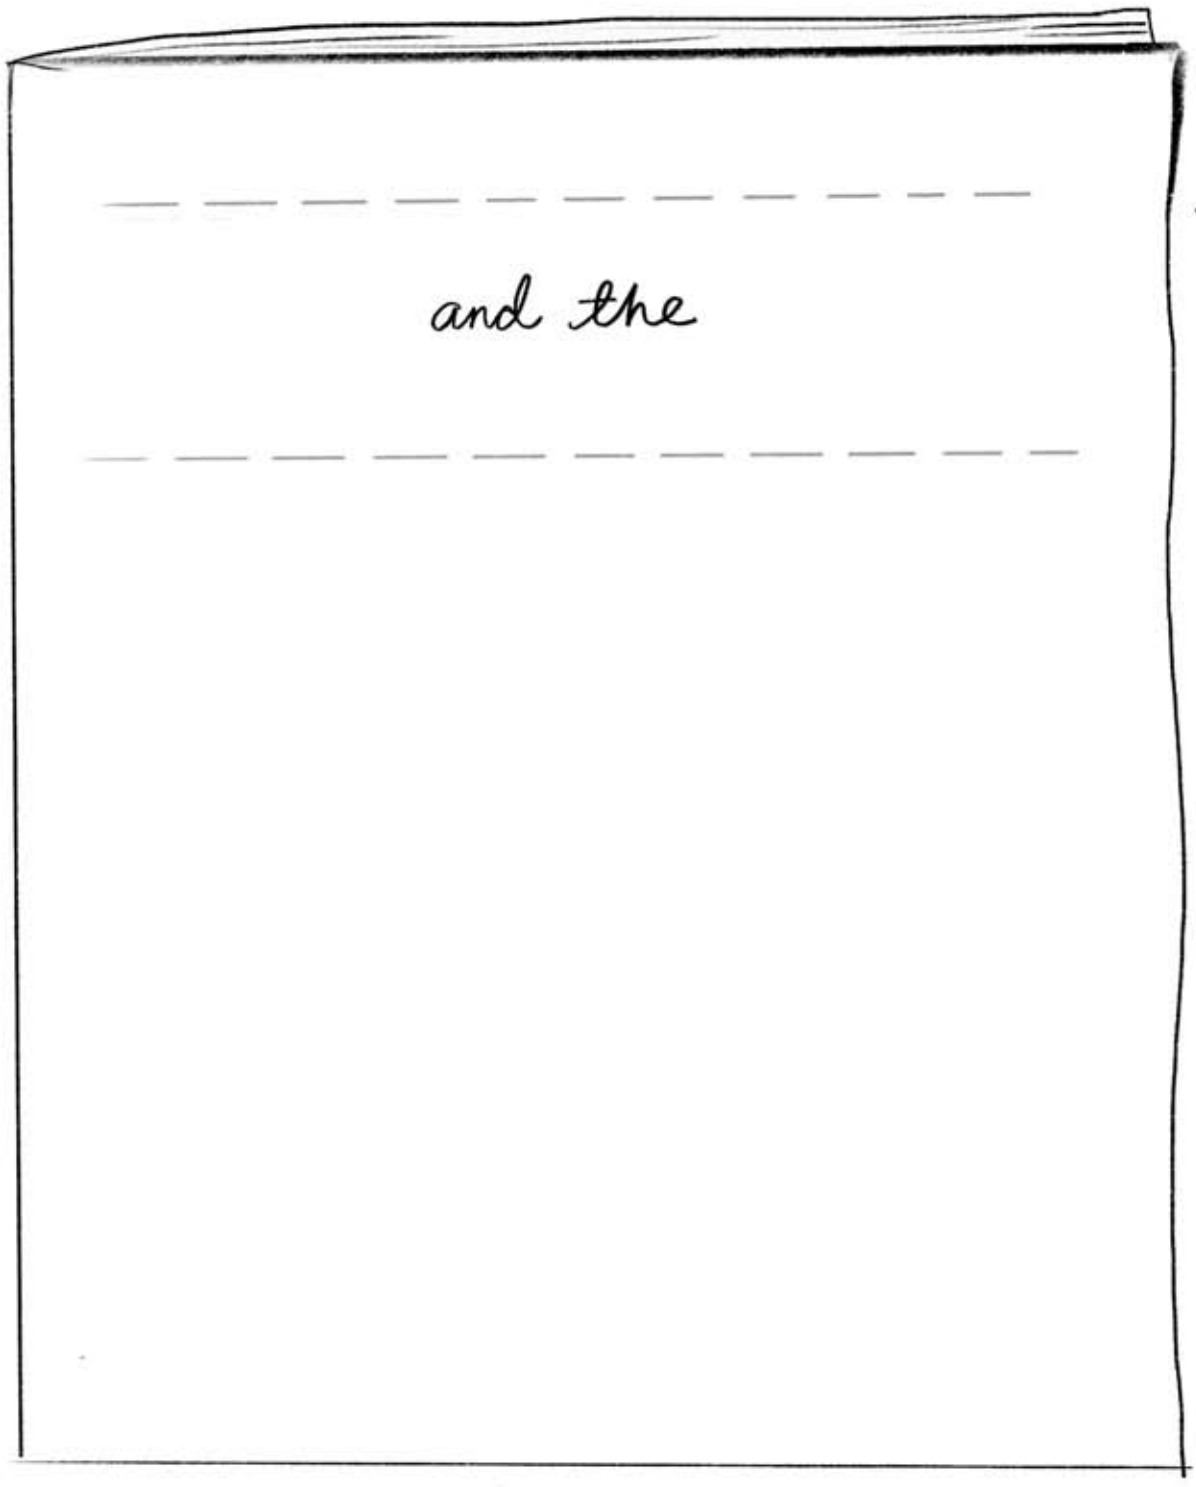
For this illustration challenge we would like you to create a book cover for your own story. Imagine you have been sucked into a book - it could be any book at all, for example a fairy tale, a scary ghost story, or an exciting adventure.

Remember to include the title, main characters, the setting for the story and the name of the author (you!).



Thames & Hudson